As I prepare to commence the new term, I want to take a moment to pass along my heartfelt thanks to all members, past presidents who made METCEA force to reckon with. My top priority as president is to keep in touch and focus in engaging members regularly and understand their requirements and extend our assistance. It is front and center because that's how each member benefits and grows their business and our industry I ask all members, to "Aspire to Inspire" because Membership is our Foundation. Education is our Energy. Advocacy is our Power. Currently we are facing a very challenging and turbulent situation both for the industry and mankind.
